Take notice that on the 16 day of May 20 23 at 0920 hours, you entered on the premises of the University of Saskatchewan without the permission of the University, and/or engaged in prohibited activity on University premises without consent.

Further take notice that from this time:

You are prohibited from entering all premises, including land, property, buildings and buildings located on land, owned, administered, leased or occupied by the University of Saskatchewan and its affiliated colleges.

Pursuant to section 11(1)(a) of the Trespass to Property Act, this is your written notice of trespass and any further trespass as stated in this notice may result in charges under the Trespass to Property Act and/or your arrest.

This prohibition will remain in effect until rescinded by the Director of Protective Services, in writing.

Please note that this notice does not prohibit you from accessing the Royal University Hospital, and direct passage along Hospital Drive, for medical emergencies.
